Frenchmans Creek, Bosham Hoe

Situated on the sought-after Bosham Hoe peninsula, Frenchman's Creek is an exceptional detached waterfront home enjoying uninterrupted views across Chichester Harbour towards Itchenor Sailing Club, with a private jetty, mooring and direct water access.

Extending to over 3,100 sq ft, the property offers spacious, well-maintained accommodation with excellent potential for modernisation. The ground floor includes an open-plan kitchen and dining area opening onto a harbourside terrace, together with a generous sitting room and adjoining conservatory, both enjoying wonderful water views.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from dual-aspect harbour views, alongside three further double bedrooms. A self-contained annexe with its own kitchen and living area provides flexible guest accommodation.

Outside, attractive gardens slope gently towards the waterfront, with terraces, a private jetty and mooring offering direct access to the harbour.

A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial waterfront home in one of the South Coast's most desirable locations.

Frenchmans Creek will appeal to buyers seeking a permanent residence or second home in a prestigious harbourside setting, with outstanding views, private water access and the tranquillity of one of the South Coast's most celebrated and protected waterways.
