CHESTERTONS

Chestertons is delighted to bring to market this beautifully presented mid-terrace home, located on one of the most sought-after streets within the Diamond Conservation Area.

Offering well-proportioned and versatile accommodation throughout, the property seamlessly combines period charm with contemporary living.

The spacious ground floor features a double reception room which flows through to a well-appointed modern kitchen. A large island provides ample worktop space and the option for informal dining, while integrated appliances and an abundance of storage ensure the space is both stylish and practical. Bi-fold doors open onto the well-maintained, low-maintenance paved garden, creating a versatile space ideal for entertaining. A guest W/C and generous under-stair storage complete the ground floor.

The first floor offers three bedrooms, all comfortably accommodating double beds, alongside a stylish family bathroom.

The second and top floor is dedicated entirely to the principal bedroom. Unusually for a period property, the room is unaffected by an eaves roof and benefits from an impressive ceiling height, creating a wonderfully spacious and luxurious feel. Plentiful built-in wardrobes and a contemporary en-suite bathroom add further opulence to this exceptional bedroom.

The property is ideally situated just a few minutes' walk from both Queenstown Road and Battersea Park mainline stations, offering direct links to Waterloo and Victoria respectively. The green open spaces of both Clapham and Battersea Park are also within easy reach.
