32A Market Street is a deceptively spacious one-bedroom apartment located in the heart of Kirkby Stephen.

Kirkby Stephen is conveniently situated just ten miles from Junction 38 of the M6 motorway, offering excellent access to Kendal, Penrith, Appleby, and the Lake District. The scenic Settle to Carlisle Railway is right on the doorstep, and both the Coast to Coast and Lady Ann footpaths pass through the area. The town boasts highly regarded primary and grammar schools, a wide range of shops, restaurants, and pubs, as well as a church, chapel, and a doctor's surgery. Additionally, Kirkby Stephen hosts a traditional weekly outdoor market and an agricultural auction mart.

Internally, 32A Market Street offers accommodation spread over four floors. The ground floor features a practical entrance area, which also serves as a utility room. On the first floor, you'll find a cosy living room with a dining area, complemented by an open fireplace and a well-appointed kitchen. The second floor houses a spacious double bedroom overlooking the High Street, alongside a generous shower room. On the third floor, an attic room offers versatile potential, ideal for use as a dressing room to complement the master suite, a home office, or a studio.

Externally, the property benefits from a private patio courtyard, perfect for enjoying the afternoon sun.

This property offers a flexible opportunity, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, those seeking a holiday retreat, or investors looking for a centrally located apartment.
