An extended three-bedroom detached bungalow, situated in Trimley St Mary, offering flexible and spacious accommodation with the significant advantage of no onward chain.

This inviting home features an entrance hall leading to a generous lounge, complete with a charming fireplace, perfect for relaxing evenings. The well-appointed kitchen includes integrated domestic appliances, making daily routines effortless. The property offers three comfortable bedrooms, a modern shower room with a quadrant shower, and a separate WC for added convenience.

A true highlight is the very large conservatory/day room, providing an impressive additional reception space. This versatile area is ideal for entertaining, dining, or creating a dedicated home office, offering superb adaptability for modern living.

Outside, the property benefits from off-road driveway parking for two cars, with scope for additional vehicles, leading to a southwest-facing garden. This pleasant outdoor space is perfect for enjoying the sun throughout the day and offers a low-maintenance retreat.

Located on the outskirts of Felixstowe, this bungalow is well-positioned for Trimley Railway Station (with direct links to Ipswich, Norwich, and London Liverpool Street), local schools, shops, and other amenities. Further benefits include gas-fired central heating and double glazing.
