"I love this home for its characteristics and Victorian charm. It's a place I have made into a sanctuary of style, design and comfort. It's a place to be social in the summer and a restful hideaway in the winter. I love spending time having my morning coffee in the kitchen with the sun on my face to getting cosy in front of the fire over the autumn and winter months. For me, it's my safe space, a place to think and a place to shut off, in equal measure."
