The kitchen has a comprehensive range of wooden wall and base units with wooden worktops, built-in hob with extractor above and built-in double oven, double sink and space for separate fridge and freezer. It has a tiled floor and half glazed door opening to the conservatory. The dining room also opens onto both the reception room and the conservatory and has a wood laminate floor. The large conservatory has a tiled floor, glazed roof and French doors opening to the garden. Also on the ground floor are a cloakroom and a utility room which has matching fitted wall and base units with space for washing machine and further fridge/freezer, and a half glazed door opening to the side of the house.

Stairs lead up to a wide landing with a large airing cupboard and leading to all first floor rooms. The principal bedroom is generously proportioned, double aspect and benefits from an en-suite bathroom and a well-appointed dressing room. Three additional bedrooms offer ample accommodation for family or guests, all benefiting from large windows allowing plenty of natural light. A family bathroom completes the first floor accommodation.

Additional features include a garage and front driveway parking, ensuring ample space for vehicles and a good size westerly facing garden. This exceptional property is a superb choice for discerning buyers seeking a spacious and refined home in a sought-after private estate location.

Craigweil on Sea is a prestigious private marine estate, known locally for its Royal connections with King George V's visit whilst convalescing in 1929. When the development first commenced, it was very much aimed at town dwellers seeking a quality seaside residence and the retired wishing to reside in a peaceful neighbourhood. Today, however, it is probably best described as 'One of the best kept secrets along the South Coast'.
