Stukeley Street, Seven Dials WC2

Recently developed to an exceptional standard, the high specification includes a contemporary kitchen with Miele appliances, luxurious bathrooms and bespoke joinery. The apartment offers bright, well-proportioned accommodation including a lovely corner aspect in the main open plan living area and double glazed sash windows. Natural light fills the upper level with a large skylight that also open up to the roof terrace.

Heating is supplied through a Mechanical Ventilation with Heat Recovery system which supplies continuous fresh air circulation, integrated with nitrogen dioxide filters to reduce air pollution intake. A high efficiency heat pump delivers heating, cooling and hot water, along with underfloor heating throughout. Solar panels also supply the apartment with a renewable green energy source.

Stukeley Street is a tranquil side street situated between Drury Lane and Kingsway, ideally located for access to both the West End & City, with the buzzing Hoxton Holborn located literally around the corner and the green open space of Lincoln's Inn Fields a few minutes stroll away.

Covent Garden's bustling Piazza is within easy reach (as well as its tube station) and along with it the many dining and retail attractions of the West End. Holborn tube is only moments away as well as Central, Northern & Elizabeth high speed lines at nearby Tottenham Court Road, allowing convenient access to the rest of the Capital and beyond.

Stukeley Street takes its name from William Stukeley, rector of nearby St. George the Martyr's Church in Holborn in the 1740's and close friend and Biographer of Isaac Newton. As well as a clergyman, Stukeley studied medicine at St. Thomas's, was a renowned antiquarian and is widely regarded as a pioneer and forerunner of modern archaeology, having undertaken many studies and field trips to historic sites up and down the country with a particular interest in Stonehenge.

Seven Dials is a charm-packed lifestyle & gastronomy hub connecting Covent Garden with Soho, defined by seven characterful cobbled streets radiating from the unmistakable sundial dating from the 1690's.

An eclectic mix of historic warehouses and Dutch style red brick houses, plus a flourishing food scene with Seven Dials Market's independent street food vendors and Neal's Yard's fantastic Barbary and recent opening Story Cellar, this buzzing neighbourhood is celebrated as much for its heritage brands, independent boutiques and upcoming labels as it's gastronomia, making it a much-loved destination for trend-conscious shoppers and foodies alike.

People Make Places

London is a collection of inspiring urban villages and one of the most exciting places in the world to live, work & play.

We work with both property owners and their occupiers, sharing the story of these vibrant neighbourhoods, conveying the unique soul & energy to future custodians, the people who'll keep them buzzing.

And unlike many real estate businesses we're not just about buildings, because streets & buildings don't make a neighbourhood.

We're about building relationships, because people make places.
