SITUATION

This attractive parcel of land is located around 1.8 miles from the popular riverside village of Bere Ferrers, on the Bere Peninsula in West Devon. The village is served by a pub and community shop, and benefits from an absence of through traffic. The area is sought-after by those with an interest in sailing and other water sports, with the nearby hamlet of Weir Quay (3 miles) providing a boatyard and moorings.

Bere Ferrers train station provides a direct 25-minute rail service to Plymouth City Centre, whilst the larger village of Bere Alston, 1.3 miles away, offers a good range of day-to-day amenities, including a mini supermarket, convenience store, post office, butchers, hairdressers, primary school, doctor's surgery and pharmacy. The verdant wooded banks of the Tamar Valley National Landscape (formerly AONB), along the Devon/Cornwall border, offer superb opportunities to discover the region's rich heritage. The thriving market town of Tavistock, forming part of a designated World Heritage Site, is 7.5 miles away.

DESCRIPTION

The land measure approximately 3.03 acres in all, which is south-facing and gently sloping, and enjoy some fine views towards the River Tamar and the Tamar Bridge. The land is likely to principally appeal to amenity purchasers wanting some grazing land for ponies or perhaps other livestock, or, alternatively, it may appeal to those looking to own some fantastic countryside in a peaceful position (including for private camping under the 60-day permitted development rules), yet with easy access to a train station, nearby Tavistock, Plymouth, Dartmoor and the South Devon and Cornish coasts.

SERVICES

No services are understood to be connected to the land. Purchasers should satisfy themselves in every respect as to the availability, capacity and cost of any services that they may wish to connect, before placing a bid. No broadband is connected to the site. Variable mobile voice/data services are available on the land, through the four major providers (source: Ofcom's online service checker).

WAYLEAVES AND RIGHTS OF WAY

The land is sold subject to, and with the benefit of, any wayleave agreements in respect of electricity or telephone equipment, and also subject to, and with the benefit of, any public or private rights of way. No public rights of way are believed to cross the land, and it benefits from a right of access over the neighbouring third-party land (shown hatched brown on the Land Plan).
