Description

A beautifully recently refurbished four-bedroom family home, arranged over three floors.

The ground floor features two versatile reception rooms, including a bright front reception and a stunning open-plan kitchen/dining/family room to the rear. The contemporary kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with high-quality finishes and direct access to the private garden, creating an ideal space for both entertaining and everyday family life.

Upstairs, the property provides four well-proportioned bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, arranged over the first and second floors. The layout offers excellent flexibility, making it well-suited for families as well as those needing additional space for guests or a home office.

Finished to a high standard throughout, the house combines elegant period detailing with stylish modern updates, resulting in a warm and practical home.

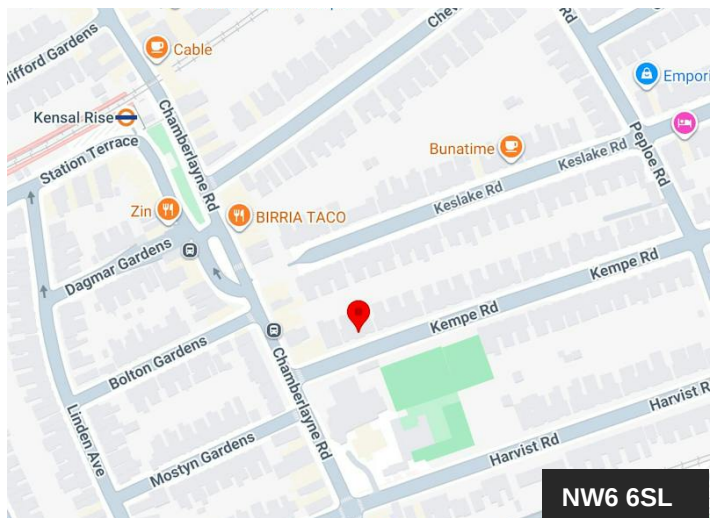

Location

Situated on the sought-after Kempe Road, the property enjoys a prime position within easy reach of excellent transport connections. Kensal Rise (Overground) and Kensal Green (Bakerloo Line & Overground) stations are both within close proximity, providing quick links into Central London and beyond. Numerous bus routes also serve the area, making commuting straightforward.

The neighbourhood is well-regarded for its vibrant community and local amenities, with an array of shops, cafés, restaurants, and green spaces nearby. Popular spots such as Queen's Park and Chamberlayne Road are close at hand, offering a wide choice.

Families are particularly well served, with a number of highly regarded schools in the area, including both primary and secondary options rated "Good" or "Outstanding" by Ofsted.

This property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a turnkey family home in one of North West London's most desirable residential locations.
