Guide price £875,000

A superbly presented and much improved detached house which stands on a generous plot in a non-estate location on the western outskirts of this sought after Essex village.

The accommodation is very spacious and is in tip-top condition throughout. There is gas central heating and new double glazing was installed in 2018.

This impressive property comprises: Entrance hall, utility room, downstairs cloakroom, dual aspect sitting room with fireplace, study/fourth bedroom, magnificent open plan kitchen/dining/family room with a large and well fitted kitchen, a part vaulted ceiling and full-width picture windows and doors making the most of the lovely rear garden and farmland views. The first floor has a master bedroom suite consisting of a bedroom, dressing area and en-suite shower room. In addition to this are two generously proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The rear garden is approximately 130' in length and has extensive patio and lawn areas. The front garden is set behind an established hedge and is approximately 55' x 50'. The driveway has parking for four cars and leads to a double garage which has a remote control door and direct access into the house as well as a very useful workshop to the rear of the garage.

The property is within walking distance of the Parish Church, popular public house/restaurant, village shop, primary school, village green and the famous duck ponds. As you can see from the aerial photos, it is surrounded by open countryside which offers some picturesque rural walks. There is a mainline railway station at nearby Elsenham which also has a handy Tesco Express supermarket.
