A substantial detached, family home that has been cleverly extended from its original standing, offering a rare blend of generous living space, privacy, and countryside charm. Positioned on an extensive plot with beautiful gardens to both the front and rear, the property enjoys a sense of space and seclusion that's ideal for family life.

A gated driveway provides ample parking adjacent to the front garden. as you enter, you are welcomed into a central hall with access to the downstairs cloakroom. The modern kitchen/breakfast room is well-appointed and perfect for daily living. A bright dining area that overlooks the front gardens connects to a spacious sitting room which is bathed in natural light, featuring two sets of doors that open directly onto the secluded garden—perfect for entertaining or unwinding with nature as your backdrop. Additional ground floor highlights include a versatile family room which can also be utilised as an additional fifth bedroom, a practical utility area, and a contemporary shower room. Upstairs, you'll find four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal suite complete with an en suite shower room and breath taking countryside views. A generous family bathroom offers both a walk-in shower and a bath, catering to all family needs.

The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn and framed by mature hedges, bushes, and trees, offering excellent privacy and a tranquil retreat. Located on the outskirts of Tickenham, the home is just a short drive from Clevedon's shops and amenities, and within easy reach of Tickenham Primary School. With convenient routes to Bristol via Failand, and beautiful walks nearby at Cadbury Camp and Nortons Wood, this location balances peaceful living with accessibility.

While the property would benefit from some updating, its layout, location, and potential make it an ideal long-term family home.

Spacious family home with countryside charm, extensive accommodation, large gardens, ample parking, and great location near schools, walks, and Bristol.
