This well-proportioned and extended home strikes an excellent balance between spacious communal areas and comfortable private rooms, with a layout designed to make the most of every part of the home and create a living space that is as functional as it is warm and welcoming. This lovely three-bedroom end-of-terrace home has a smart and practical layout in a popular part of Uckfield. When you walk in, you're greeted by a hallway that gives you easy access to the main living area, including a spacious lounge that's perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Next to the lounge is an open-plan kitchen and dining space, making it a great spot for family meals and get-togethers. The flow between the different areas makes the home feel open and welcoming, adding to its comfort and functionality. Upstairs, there are three good-sized bedrooms, offering plenty of space for family, guests, or even a home office. The bathroom is centrally located for convenience. Overall, this home strikes a nice balance between shared living areas and private retreats, making it a cozy and practical choice for family life. Externally the property has a well kept private rear garden with lawn, patio and a garden shed and further benefits from a garage en-bloc. The location is extremely convenient being just a short walk from Uckfield's high street, schools, and mainline train station with direct links to London.
