Description

Situated in the heart of Plymouth on Regent Street, this well-positioned third-floor apartment offers safe, secure and low-maintenance living exclusively for the over 60s. Set within a highly regarded development, residents benefit from excellent communal facilities including a welcoming residents' lounge, communal washing and drying room, gated parking available on a first-come, first-served basis, and beautifully maintained communal gardens. The building is electric-only (no gas supply) and is equipped with emergency pull cords, providing reassurance that assistance is always close at hand. The apartment itself comprises a comfortable living room with space for dining, a separate compact kitchen, a double bedroom, and a family bathroom. The layout offers practical and manageable accommodation, ideal for those seeking independence with added peace of mind. Perfectly positioned just a short distance from Plymouth City Centre and the historic Plymouth Barbican, residents can enjoy a wealth of shops, amenities, waterfront walks and transport links right on the doorstep.
