Description

A charming end-of-terrace two-bedroom period home, enviably positioned within a quiet and secluded setting at the end of a private road in the heart of Seaford town centre. Beautifully maintained and thoughtfully improved by the current owner, including tasteful upgrades to both the kitchen and bathroom, this delightful property perfectly combines character features with modern convenience. Ideally located, the property is within easy walking distance of Seaford's excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants, mainline railway station, regular Brighton and Eastbourne bus services, and the picturesque seafront and Esplanade, making it perfectly suited for both commuters and coastal living.

The accommodation retains an abundance of attractive period charm and further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

The spacious living room is bright and welcoming, featuring a front-aspect double glazed window, picture rail, radiator, and an attractive wood-burning stove with timber mantle and surround, creating a cosy focal point.

The separate dining room offers additional character with a feature fireplace, rear-aspect window overlooking the courtyard, two useful under-stairs storage cupboards, and radiator.

The stylishly updated kitchen is fitted with a range of modern storage cupboards and work surfaces, complemented by an inset Butler-style sink with swan neck mixer tap. Integrated appliances include an electric hob with oven beneath and extractor hood above. A double glazed door provides direct access to the rear yard.

Upstairs, the landing provides access to the airing cupboard and loft space.

The principal bedroom is a generously sized double room overlooking the front of the property, while the second bedroom enjoys views across the rear yard.

The contemporary bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising a bath with mixer taps, wash hand basin set within a vanity unit, low-level WC, radiator, tiled walls, laminate wood flooring, and a side-aspect double glazed window.

Externally, the enclosed small rear yard offers a private and low-maintenance outdoor space.
