19 High Street

Whaddon, Milton Keynes

A beautifully renovated period cottage offering character, privacy, and modern living in an idyllic village setting—ideal for those seeking the best of both countryside charm and commuter convenience.

It's all about location, location, location. This stunning two-bedroom cottage enjoys an enviable tucked-away position with no passing traffic, set within the attractive North Buckinghamshire village of Whaddon. Combining peaceful countryside living with excellent access to Milton Keynes, you'll benefit from fantastic transport links, outstanding shopping facilities, and a wealth of amenities just a short drive away.

Steeped in history and brimming with character, this charming cottage has been sympathetically renovated by the current owner to create a beautiful home that blends period features with modern comforts. Original charm is evident throughout, with wooden flooring, latched doors, exposed brickwork, and a feature multi-fuel burner creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The extensive renovation programme includes:

Complete electrical rewiring throughout

New electric wet heating system with radiators

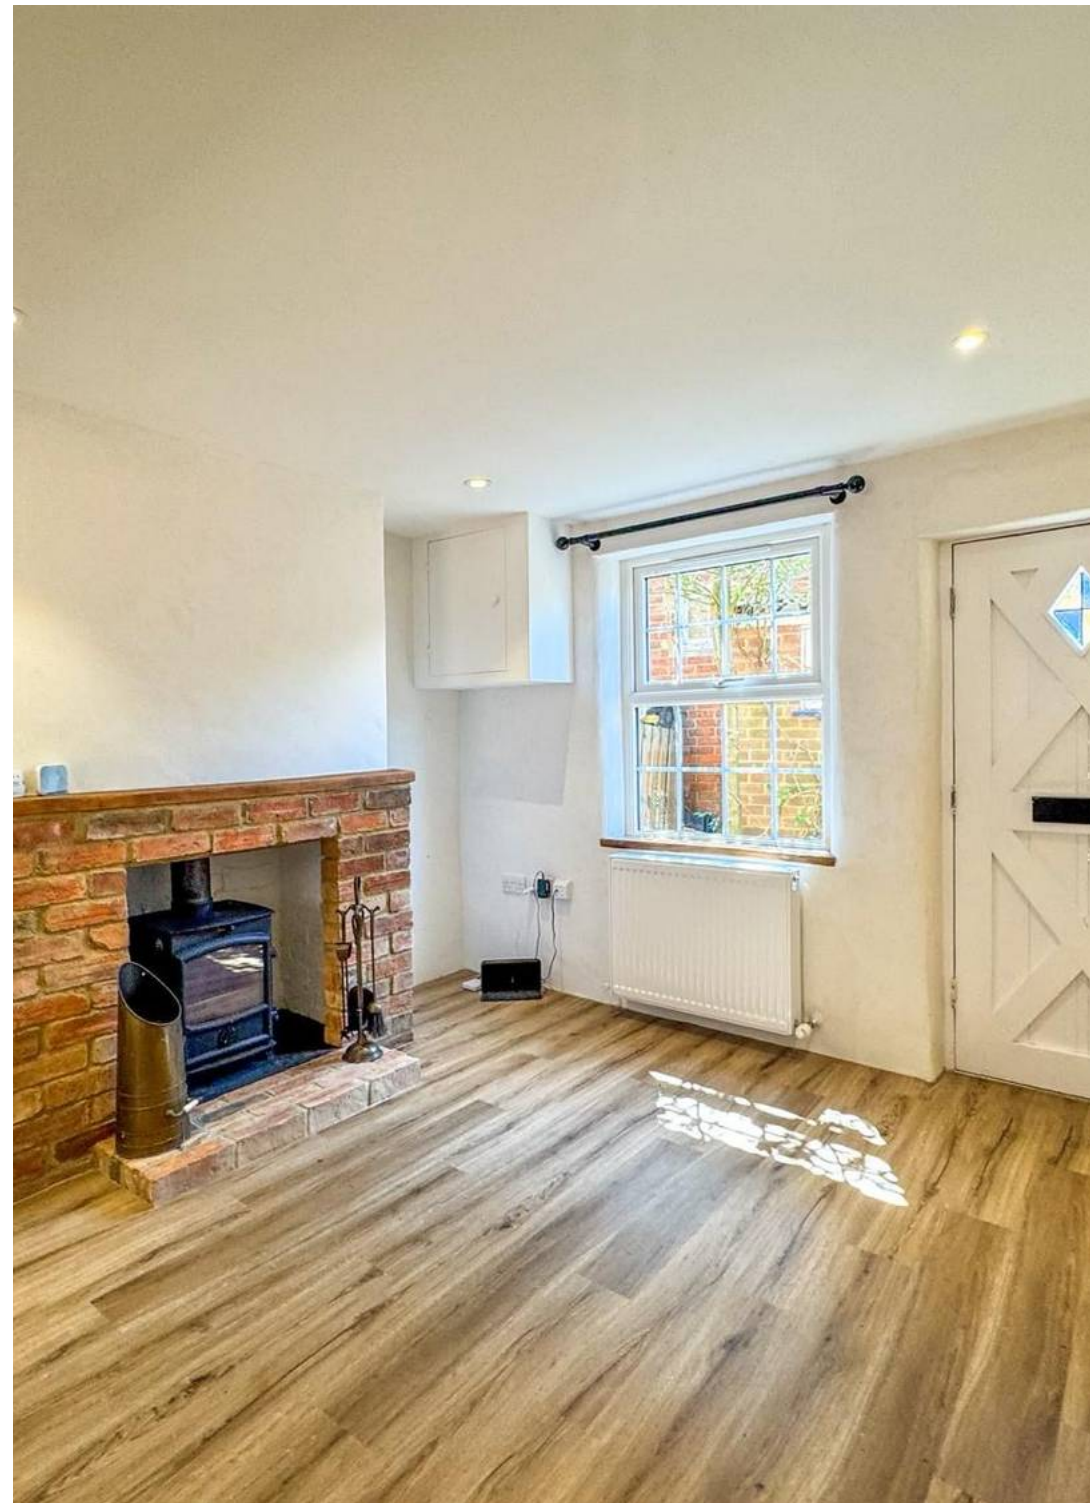

Replastering using self-insulating lime plaster

A stylish new kitchen and bathroom

Luxury LVT 'Nite Tile' flooring to the ground floor

New carpets and tiled flooring to the first floor

The front door opens into a welcoming open-plan living and kitchen area. Dual-aspect windows flood the space with natural light, while the exposed brick fireplace with multi-fuel burner and lime plaster feature walls retain the property's character and charm. The well-appointed kitchen offers a range of fitted units complemented by attractive beech block worktops, integrated oven
