Forming part of the historic Grade II listed Redgate Tower, this ground floor apartment presents a rare opportunity to acquire a home within one of Hunstanton's most recognisable buildings. Converted in the 1980s into just four residences, the building offers a compelling blend of architectural character and practical, modern living.

Accessed via a gated driveway to the rear, the apartment benefits from a private entrance porch enjoying a westerly aspect, providing a pleasant outdoor seating area.

The interior is bright and well arranged, with a comfortable sitting room offering space for both relaxation and dining. The kitchen has been recently updated with contemporary units, integrated appliances and generous storage, creating a clean and functional space.

There are two bedrooms, including a well-proportioned principal double, alongside a second room suited to guests, a home office or dressing room. A modern shower room completes the accommodation.

Externally, the property offers excellent practicality with private parking, an additional area for seating or storage, and a particularly valuable double garage, ideal for further parking, storage or workshop use.

The apartment is offered with a quarter share of the freehold, no service charges and a pet-friendly arrangement. Within easy reach of the seafront and town centre, it provides an individual and low-maintenance coastal home.

A unique ground floor apartment.

Hunstanton

A VICTORIAN TOWN WITH WORLD-FAMOUS CLIFFS

Who wouldn't want a place by the sea? Hunstanton, a traditional, unspoilt coastal town, is perfect for a beach walk and a fish and chip supper. For residents, this Victorian gem offers even more.

Founded in 1846 by Henry Le Strange as a Victorian Gothic bathing resort, Hunstanton thrived with the railway from King's Lynn, becoming a top day-trip destination. Today, holidaymakers flock to Searles Leisure Resort, enjoy boat trips on the Wash Monster, fairground rides, and traditional arcades. The Princess Theatre, renamed in the 80s for Lady Diana Spencer, hosts live performances, films, and seasonal pantos. Golf enthusiasts can play mini-golf, pitch & putt, and the renowned Links course in Old Hunstanton.

Facing west across The Wash, "Sunny Hunny" is famous for its sunsets. Summer evenings are perfect for watching the sun set from the green, beach, or Victorian squares. Impressive Victorian and Edwardian properties line these squares, alongside contemporary homes, apartments, and senior living accommodations. Education options include a primary and secondary school (Smithdon High, a Grade II listed building), and Glebe House School, a co-educational prep school. Amenities feature a GP surgery, post office, leisure pool, and gym at The Oasis, overlooking the sea.

Local shopping includes Tesco, Sainsbury's, and a Lidl nearby in Heacham, along with a fantastic local greengrocer and award-winning deli. Dining options range from full English breakfasts to afternoon tea at Berni Beans and relaxing at wine bar Chives.

Hunstanton attracts young families, professionals, and retirees seeking a slower pace of life. Discover why this charming town is the perfect coastal retreat.

Note from the Vendor

"Being so close to the sea is something we've really enjoyed, it's the perfect place to relax and unwind."
