IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step through your own front door and into a generous reception room where there is plenty of space to relax and dine. Natural light flows in through large windows and the room is finished with warm wood flooring and soft neutral décor, creating a welcoming setting for everyday living as well as evenings spent hosting friends around the table.

Just beyond, the kitchen is thoughtfully arranged with sleek white cabinetry, tiled splashbacks and dark worktops providing plenty of preparation space. A door at the end leads directly outside, making it easy to carry morning coffee or weekend brunch out into the garden.

Your bedroom is a calm and comfortable double with fitted mirrored wardrobes stretching across one wall, helping to maximise storage while reflecting the light from the wide window. The bathroom is finished in pale tiling with a modern suite including a bath and overhead shower, creating a bright and well kept space to start and end the day.

To the rear you have your own circa 28 foot garden, mostly paved for easy upkeep and framed by fencing for privacy. There is plenty of room here for seating, pots and planting, making it a lovely spot to enjoy warmer afternoons.

Your new local could well be The Larkshall, around eight minutes away on foot. This beautifully restored sixteenth century farmhouse is full of character and serves craft beers alongside hearty pub classics and traditional Sunday roasts. A little further on, Highams Park is around twelve minutes away on foot, perfect for morning runs or gentle evening walks. From here you can take in wide views across London, wander beside the lake, and stop by Humphry's Café for tea and cake.

WHAT ELSE?

- Families are well catered for locally, with around a dozen primary and secondary schools rated 'Good' or 'Outstanding' within a mile of your door.
- Highams Park station is around a twenty two minute walk, where Overground trains run directly to Liverpool Street in around twenty three minutes.
- Walthamstow Central is just two stops away for a swift change to the Victoria line, while Chingford station is within about a half hour walk and runs regular services towards Clapham Junction.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT....

"I love the outdoors as much as the buzz of the city, so Chingford is perfect for me. With Epping Forest on the doorstep, cycling, hiking and exploring are always close by, while transport links take you into the city in under half an hour. Moving between Chingford Mount and North Chingford for a pub, café or takeaway means there is plenty of choice. I often meet friends at The Rusty Bike for Thai food, a wide beer selection or a game of football. Weekends are for the Kings Head, with its sunny beer garden and cosy roasts in winter. Travelling between appointments is a joy thanks to the friendly community, where you are often greeted with a smile. The area's diversity adds to its appeal, with international takeaways and supermarkets offering new tastes to discover. Evenings are for dog walks at Yates Meadow, where peaceful hills meet city skylines. Chingford truly has something for everyone and is more affordable than much of London".
