lifestyle

σ

Barns Green has a convenience store, selling fresh, local produce, which is home also to your local post office. The nearest supermarket, in the popular neighbouring town of Horsham, is just over a 10-minute drive away.

Enjoy easy access to the glorious countryside and bustling town of Horsham, from Sumners Fields.

Beauty spot

This lovely new development sits adjacent to Sumners Ponds, a popular fishery, glamping site and countryside walking hotspot, with a superb café. Set alongside one of the lakes, your new address provides a tranquil spot to enjoy something to eat and drink, while soaking in the abundance of wildlife.

In addition, Southwater Country Park is another beauty spot nearby, offering several water sports activities, plentiful walks and even Dinosaur Island - a play area for the kids to enjoy! The café provides a lovely opportunity to take a break, with its range of refreshments including homemade cakes and sandwiches prepared with local produce.

Education

Sumners Fields offers educational opportunities aplenty, with both private and state schools nearby. Barns Green Primary School, catering to children aged 4–11, is within walking distance of your new home. For those with children of secondary-school age, Southwater Junior Academy is just over 10 minutes' car journey away. Just a short drive from your new home, you will find Christ's Hospital, the UK's leading and largest charitable bursary school, whose students, whether at day school or boarding, have access to the school's purpose-built theatre. The school places a large emphasis on the arts, delivering over 600 music lessons each week.

There's something for EVERYONE σ

Local amenities

Barns Green is a thriving community, with a range of activities available. The local village hall is within walking distance, offering many classes, including yoga, Pilates and Red Academy. The academy offers a range of children's classes, including ballet, singing, acting and dance. With its daily playgroup, even the littlest family member can get involved. The hall is home to a well-established amateur performing arts group, The Barns Green Players, which arranges two shows a year, ranging from pantomimes and comedy plays to junior productions (with professional lighting and sound), in which the whole village can immerse itself.

Foodies delight

Foodies will delight at the nearby culinary and entertainment options. Within walking distance is The Queens Head, a dog-friendly local pub which offers great food and entertainment, including live music and open-mic nights. The Bax Castle is also a great option, serving artisan pizzas made from scratch with the finest, local ingredients. You can even see the pizza dough being hand-spun, while enjoying a cocktail from their Gin Cocktail Bar. Under 10 minutes' drive away, you will find The Boars Head, offering live music events and a traditional British menu with a Mediterranean twist – it's the perfect place to while away an evening. Of course, Horsham town itself is close by, with its abundance of options for evening entertainment and its renowned Eat Street, The Capitol cinema and Everyman Theatre.

Knepp Estate

Just a stone's throw from your new home is Knepp Estate. Having begun rewilding just 20 years ago, the estate is now home to endangered species such as nightingales, turtle doves, storks and purple emperor butterflies. If you want to soak in the grounds and discover more about the wildlife which calls the estate its home, you can take a safari tour, either by vehicle or on foot. There's also glamping, camping and the Yoga Garden here to try.

Half marathon

The vibrant village of Barns Green hosts an annual half marathon. The award-winning event is organised solely by local community volunteers. The race goes past the historic Christ's Hospital school and has live music at multiple points along its route.

Sports

Barns Green is not short of sporting opportunities, with Barns Green Rugby Club, Barns Green Tennis Club and Barns Green & Itchingfield Sports and Social Club just a short distance away. Bluecoat Sports is nearby – and, if you want to improve your handicap, there are several great golf clubs close by, including Slinford Golf & Country Club. Set in 165 acres of woodland and mature parkland, this makes an enjoyable course for any level of golfing ability. The neighbouring town offers Horsham Golf, a popular golfing destination set in glorious countryside.
