The property makes up part of a select scheme of period barns dating back to the mid 1800s and converted to five residential new style dwellings in the early 2000s. The barns are Grade II listed as they fall within the curtilage of Wyddial Bury Farm, a stunning 16th century farmhouse. The property is nestled within rolling countryside with views over the pretty village church.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming reception hall with slate flooring, stairs to first floor accommodation, storage cupboard under with plumbing for a washing machine and a luxury shower room just off. There is a generous ground floor bedroom with fitted wardrobe cupboards and an ensuite boasting a walk-in shower. The open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room boasts a high vaulted ceiling with exposed timber beams and a number of windows overlooking the garden. The kitchen area is fitted with attractive cabinetry, ample granite working surfaces/breakfast bar with inset single sink unit with bevel drainer. There is a Kenwood five ring gas range style cooker with extractor over plus space for an American style fridge/freezer and dishwasher.

Upstairs, there is a galleried landing/study area which overlooks the main reception below. There is a good sized bedroom with adjoining loft storage room.

Outside, the garden is mainly laid to lawn with paved patio area and well screened by mature loreal hedging and gated access leads to the parking area.
