12 WOODSIDE

- Entrance Hall • Lounge • Kitchen with dining area • 2 Bedrooms • Bathroom • Double Glazing • Electric Storage Heating • Neatly maintained garden grounds • Off street parking available directly opposite the property

This attractive MID TERRACED TWO STOREY BRICK BUILT DWELLINGHOUSE has neatly maintained garden grounds to the front bounded by a wrought iron fence. Access to the rear garden is through the adjoining pend leading to a large area of neatly maintained lawn and a slabbed patio area.

Local amenities in this picturesque village include scenic beaches, water sports, woodland walks and a challenging nine hole golf course. In the village itself there is a community shop, restaurant, hotels, GP surgery and a primary school. The main focal point of the village is the attractive natural harbour which is within walking distance of Woodside.

In good condition the accommodation on the ground floor comprises entrance hall, a good sized well proportioned bright lounge with open fire, a spacious modern kitchen on open plan with an attractive dining area from which there is a door leading out to the rear garden. All white goods are included. A carpeted staircase leads to the upper floor having a well appointed bathroom and two spacious, wonderfully bright bedrooms with excellent storage space. The property is double glazed and there is electric storage heating. Off street parking is available directly opposite the property in a well maintained car park.

The photographs above show a spacious very comfortable lounge with open fireplace and a lovely bright kitchen with attractive dining area
