DESCRIPTION

Wrays Cottage is a beautifully presented turnkey two-bedroom home tucked into a quiet corner plot, offering a welcoming blend of modern comfort and cottage charm. The interiors are bright, stylish and thoughtfully arranged, creating a home that feels instantly inviting.

The living room is warm and calming, finished in soft neutral tones with wooden flooring and a comfortable layout that suits both everyday living and home working. The kitchen is a standout space — fresh, contemporary and full of character — with bold blue walls, white cabinetry, a central island and excellent natural light from dual windows. A modern ground-floor shower room sits just off the utility area, finished with marble-effect tiling and a sleek glass enclosure.

Upstairs, the cottage offers two well-proportioned bedrooms, each with a peaceful, homely feel. The main bedroom is particularly charming, with soft décor and space for additional seating, while the second bedroom works perfectly as a guest room, study or nursery.

Outside, the property enjoys a single private courtyard garden, full of colour and character. It features two useful storage sheds and rear access leading directly to the alleyway, making it practical as well as attractive. The brick-paved seating area and mature planting create a cheerful, low-maintenance outdoor space.

Wrays Cottage sits in a superb position within Huntington — close to local amenities, within walking distance of York, and served by regular bus routes offering quick, direct access into the city centre — all while benefiting from its quiet, tucked-away setting. The property is offered sold with no onward chain, providing a straightforward and stress-free move for the next owner.
