WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF AMENITIES... A detached three/four bedroom home occupying a highly sought after location, conveniently positioned close to a range of local amenities including shops, a chemist, medical centre, tearoom and public house. Eves Corner, with its picturesque duck pond and bus services to Chelmsford and Maldon, is also within easy reach. The versatile accommodation includes two bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor. On the ground floor are two further versatile rooms, one of which could be used as either a bedroom or dining room, whilst the other would make an ideal bedroom or home office, served by a modern shower room. The flexible layout offers buyers the opportunity to configure the accommodation to suit their individual requirements. Further accommodation includes a spacious lounge, conservatory and modern fitted kitchen. Externally, the property benefits from a garage, pleasant rear garden and an impressive frontage of approximately 70 feet onto Hopping Jacks Lane, providing ample off road parking alongside attractive front gardens.
