PROPERTY SUMMARY

This four bedroom family home on Chapel Close in Barton Seagrave is all about position, outlook and space. Set on the sought after Redrow development and enjoying scenic views across the river and open countryside, this home sits proudly on a prime corner plot with a generous garden that really makes the most of its setting. Inside, the layout is designed for modern family life, with multiple reception spaces for relaxing, entertaining or working from home, plus a spacious kitchen dining room that acts as the heart of the house. Upstairs, well proportioned bedrooms are complemented by ensuite facilities, creating a practical and comfortable setup for busy households. Outside, the large garden offers plenty of room for play, hosting and summer evenings with that standout view as your backdrop. Completing the package is a detached double garage and off road parking, adding everyday convenience to an already impressive home in one of Barton Seagrave's most desirable locations.
