THE PROPERTY

An exciting opportunity to occupy a charming converted chapel set on the outskirts of the picturesque hamlet of Ibberton within walking distance of St. Eustace church.

Available immediately with a preference for a longer term let.

An inviting and recently renovated converted chapel, thoughtfully restored with great care and attention to detail. The works have been carried out sympathetically to enhance the character of the original building, blending modern décor and high-quality fixtures and fittings while retaining many traditional features.

The ground floor offers a stylish fitted kitchen, a separate dining room with exposed brickwork, a cosy sitting room with a wood-burning stove, and a contemporary cloakroom. Upstairs, there are three multi-use rooms, with the master bedroom including beamed ceilings and a porthole window allowing an abundance of natural light. A new shower room completes the accommodation.

The property benefits from a landscaped wrap around garden which is being turfed imminently with driveway parking for multiple vehicles. The surrounding countryside is renowned for its excellent walking and riding, with a number of well-established pubs and the Jurassic Coast within easy reach.

SITUATION

Ibberton is a delightful North Dorset hamlet between the traditional market town of Sturminster Newton and the Georgian town of Blandford Forum. The village nestles in the lee of Bulbarrow Hill. Ibberton has a church, a country public house and parish hall which also serves Woolland and Belchalwell. The walking and riding on the doorstep are second to none and the views over North Dorset from Bulbarrow are superb and far reaching.
