This smart apartment offers good sized accommodation with all the features for independent living backed up by the reassurance of help and support if required. Somersbrook Court was constructed in 2014 and has been specifically designed for older occupants with a minimum age restriction of 70 years. There are a number of communal facilities listed below for homeowners use and comfort should they wish to. In addition, there is a house manager on site and the building entrance is accessed using a video camera entry system for added security.

The apartment itself features electric underfloor heating and double glazed windows and also benefits from its own balcony to sit out and enjoy the sunny southerly aspect. There are two good bedrooms, one with built-in storage together with a generous lounge/dining room with a well equipped kitchen leading off. A shower/wet room also provides space and plumbing for a washing machine and in addition, there is a separate cloakroom too. Further storage is also incorporated with a walk-in laundry/utility cupboard as well as another generous shelved storage cupboard.

LOCATION

Situated within Newport, the property is conveniently located within a hundred or so metres of Sainsburys Supermarket and a short walk to the other shops, services and amenities in the town centre including a number of eateries and leisure time facilities. The local bus services leading from the town centre bus station provide access across the Island, making this property ideally suited for those wanting convenience and comfort combined with security and reassurance.

ENTRANCE HALL

A spacious area with a large walk-in laundry/utility cupboard housing the hot water cylinder and providing fabulous storage. There is another good sized shelved cupboard providing even further storage.
