This beautifully presented four bedroom home is arranged over three floors, offering spacious and versatile accommodation complemented by attractive sea views. Two generous reception rooms feature characterful bay windows and cosy wood burning stoves, creating inviting spaces for relaxing or entertaining.

The property comprises three double bedrooms and a comfortable single bedroom, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an ensuite shower room on the top floor. A WC is conveniently located on each floor, while the fitted kitchen, UPVC double glazing, gas central heating and solar panels provide modern comfort and energy efficiency.

Outside, the property enjoys a private garden plot, off road parking and an attractive Portland stone frontage that perfectly complements its historic surroundings.

Situated within the sought after Fortuneswell Conservation Area on the Isle of Portland, the home is ideally placed to enjoy the spectacular Jurassic Coast, dramatic coastal walks and the renowned Chesil Beach. Fortuneswell offers a range of independent cafés, shops, pubs and everyday amenities, while the neighbouring seaside town of Weymouth provides an excellent selection of shopping, restaurants, schools, transport links and leisure facilities.
