THE OWNERS VIEW

We chose this home because of its tucked-away position at the end of the cul-de-sac, no passing traffic, just the occasional friendly visitor, and because it simply felt right for us as a family. The rooms are noticeably more generous than many newer houses, and the layout worked brilliantly, especially with the extra top floor. When our boys were teenagers, having two equal-sized rooms up there gave them their own space (and stopped any arguments over who had the bigger bedroom!). We also loved the way the downstairs flowed, particularly the large kitchen and dining area where so much of family life naturally centred.

Over time, we've put a lot of ourselves into the house. We created a new en-suite and dressing area, updated the bathrooms, added a WC on the top floor, and completely transformed the conservatory so it could be enjoyed all year round with its insulated roof and underfloor heating. The garden became our favourite spot, redesigned with separate seating and dining areas under the pergola, perfect for long summer evenings with friends, a drink in hand and the silver birches gently moving in the breeze. It's been a happy, sociable home in a genuinely lovely neighbourhood, and we'll especially miss the peace and our wonderful neighbours.
