DESCRIPTION

A stunning family residence, with canal side location in the heart of this highly regarded village.

Available for the first time since the property was bespoke crafted for the sellers around 1989. The Cedar has been subsequently upgraded and extended now delivering flowing living space with generous light filled rooms, creating a family home equally suited to relaxed gatherings and entertaining.

Accommodation commences with an entrance porch from which substantial doors open to a sizeable reception hall leading to the triple aspect lounge with log burner and separate dining room lead. At the rear there is a superb garden room, a bespoke addition with glazed walling, log burner and integral butler's pantry. A study and cloakroom with wc complete this end of the property where a staircase having half wine cellar below sweeps up to the galleried landing.

The open plan living dining kitchen is surely the hub of this home with range of shaker style units, comprehensive array of appliances, living and relaxed dining space with garden access via bifold doors and contemporary raised log burner. An equally well appointed utility room opens to the side entrance hall from which there is a home office this is multifunctional, has garden access and a cloakroom with wc. From the side entrance hall, a step staircase ascends to a "hobbies room".

The sleeping space radiates around the galleried landing with master bedroom having range of fitted furniture, dressing area and well-appointed en suite bathroom with both spa bath and separate shower enclosure. The second guest bedroom also features walk-in dressing room and en suite bathroom. Three further bedrooms are provided together with a lovely house bathroom.

A particular feature of the property is its position within the village, discretely tucked away behind electric gates off Blyth Road and having the Chesterfield Canal to the rear.

There is ample turning manoeuvring and parking space and a substantial double garage block with adjacent machinery store/workshop. The grounds are in a wraparound style, hard and soft landscaped, perfect for alfresco entertaining and with tennis court to one side.

In all the property extends to approximately 0.87 acres (0.35 hectares). The property is equipped with oil fired central heating.

LOCATION

The property enjoys frontage to Blyth Road in the well regarded canal side village of Ranby. Lying midway between North Nottinghamshire towns of Retford and Worksop.

Ranby presently boasts a variety of amenities including a popular canal side public house, primary school, independent school and is by-passed by the A1, meaning the areas excellent transport links are immediately on hand for travel and commuting. The A1 links to the M18 and wider motorway network to the north.
