

Apartment 6 'Halliford', 8 Elliot Terrace, The Hoe, Plymouth, Devon, PL1 2PL

Price £225,000

The Development

No. 8 Elliot Terrace is a distinguished Victorian conversion occupying a prime position on Plymouth Hoe, offering refined coastal living.

This grand Victorian residence has been sensitively restored and reimagined to create an exclusive collection of thoughtfully designed apartments, retaining many of the architectural details that give the building its distinctive period character. Elegant fireplaces, original-style wood panelling and traditional sash windows sit alongside carefully considered contemporary finishes, creating a sophisticated balance between heritage and modern living. The development is complemented by allocated parking and a passenger lift.

Set within one of Plymouth's most prestigious addresses, the property enjoys an exceptional coastal setting just moments from the waterfront. Here, far-reaching views across the sea and the ever-changing rhythm of the coastline form an integral part of everyday life.

The Apartment

Halliford (Apartment 6) is a spacious and beautifully proportioned one-bedroom apartment situated on the ground floor, offering spacious and characterful accommodation whilst also benefitting from a good degree of privacy thanks to its slightly elevated position.

The apartment comprises a large double bedroom, a well-appointed bathroom and a welcoming entrance lobby with convenient access to the passenger lift via a separate lobby. There is also a separate utility cupboard located in the hallway, housing the washer/dryer. The principal living accommodation is an impressive open-plan living space incorporating a contemporary kitchen, dining space and sitting room. Generously proportioned, the room provides a versatile and sociable environment for both everyday living and entertaining.

Period features, including elegant fireplaces and traditional sash windows, provide a subtle reminder of the building's Victorian heritage while sitting comfortably alongside the apartment's contemporary finishes.
