An exceptional opportunity to acquire a remarkable piece of Hemel Hempstead's history. Number One Broad Street, known locally as "The Mayor's House," is an elegant period residence offering generous and versatile accommodation extending to approximately 2,700 sq ft, including the garage.

Rich in character, the home showcases a wealth of original features, including high ceilings, striking stained glass, and attractive fireplaces throughout. The ground floor begins with an inviting entrance hallway, leading to a magnificent 18ft bay fronted living room and a formal dining room with a charming box window. A superb 24ft dual-aspect kitchen/breakfast room provides an ideal space for family living, complemented by a pantry and a convenient downstairs WC.

A particularly appealing aspect of the property is the flexibility of the remaining ground floor space, which can function as self-contained accommodation. This area includes a living/bedroom space, kitchen, shower room, and study perfect for multi-generational living, home office space or guest use.

The first floor offers four well-proportioned double bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom fitted with a five piece suite. A standout feature is the beautiful stained glass double doors on the landing, opening onto a balcony.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a well maintained garden featuring raised beds and seating areas, as well as a private courtyard accessed directly from the kitchen. To the rear of the plot, there is off street parking along with a 17ft garage.
