Life in Sutton-cum-Lound

Sutton-cum-Lound is a charming and highly regarded village set in the north of Nottinghamshire, just a short distance (approximately 3 miles) from the historic market town of Retford. Offering a peaceful rural setting combined with excellent connectivity, the village appeals to a wide range of buyers seeing a balance between countryside living and everyday convenience.

The village itself has a strong sense of community, centred around its historic church, local primary school, and a popular village pub. Residents benefit from a friendly, close-knit atmosphere, making it particularly attractive for families and those looking for a quieter pace of life.

Surrounded by open countryside, Sutton-cum-Lound is ideal for outdoor enthusiasts, with a network of public footpaths and scenic walking routes right on the doorstep. The nearby Ilde Valley Nature Reserve and local wetlands provide beautiful natural space and walking, cycling and wildlife watching, further enhancing the village's rural appeal.

Despite its tranquil setting, the village is well connected. Retford offers a wide range of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure facilities, along with a mainline railway station providing direct services to London Kings Cross in around 90 minutes. The area is also conveniently positioned for access to the A1 and wider motorway network, making it suitable for commuters travelling to Doncaster, Sheffield and beyond.

Sutton-cum-Lound is particularly well suited to families, professionals and downsizers alike - those seeking a safe, semi-rural lifestyle without compromising on accessibility. With its blend of countryside charm, community spirit and strong transport link, it continues to be a desirable location within the Retford area.
