£550,000 Freehold

27 Jersey Street, Brighton, BN2 9NU

Located in the heart of the sought-after Hanover area, a beautifully presented terraced townhouse with three generously sized bedrooms which has been recently refurbished with a stylish and contemporary finish. The high specification interior follows a minimalist theme with olive green fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, luxury main bathroom suite, and en-suite to the principal bedroom which runs front to back of the converted loft. Outside, the property benefits from a low-maintenance rear garden, enclosed by attractive flint walls. A popular spot for professionals and young families, being in close proximity to highly regarded St Luke's School and Queens Park, and within easy walking distance of Brighton Station, the seafront and the city centre. No onward chain.
