THE FARMHOUSE

An attractive period farmhouse of near Georgian layout and proportions with generously sized square rooms in each corner and good ceiling heights. The house is immaculately presented having undergone a full program of improvements and restoration in recent years, yet it retains much of its traditional character including flagstone floors and an inglenook fireplace.

Significant works include replacement lime pointing to the entire house and holiday barns which really brings out the local stone hue, upgraded chimney stack and new Contura log burner in the snug, Morso log burner in the dining room, underfloor heating in the bathrooms and the creation of a new triple aspect kitchen with grey bi-fold patio doors which welcomes an abundance of natural light.

OUTSIDE

The farmhouse has a good sized patio and very well-tended gardens, predominantly laid to lawn with a variety of mature trees and well stocked shrub borders. Through a door is a kitchen garden.

Off the lane is a stone garage which then opens out to a large central courtyard providing plentiful parking for the farmhouse, holiday cottages and barn.

THE HOLIDAY COTTAGES

A charming pair of attached cottages have been recently upgraded to a high spec finish. Both have oil fired heating, black patio doors, double glazing, private gardens, electric vehicle charging points and parking. Courtyard Barn sleeps up to 6 and boasts a 5-star award from Visit England. The Byre sleeps 3. Year round and repeat bookings are strong, providing a good income.

OUTBUILDINGS

Forming one side of the courtyard is a range of traditional single-storey stone barns currently used as a games room, workshop, studio, storage and an office on a first floor. The barns are perfect for conversion, subject to consent, to an annexe, further holiday cottage, offices or studios.

With a separate road entrance is the Dutch Barn, a 6-bay barn measuring 27.4m x 12.2m (90' x 40') which has also been recently updated with the installation of four 14' x 12' internal stables with external and internal doors and a concrete floor.

THE LAND

Stretching beyond the farmstead are 4 main fields of level productive permanent pasture enclosed within mature hedgerow boundaries. The land is loam over clay and classified Grade 3 on the ALC. The first 3 fields are divided by electric fencing into smaller paddocks to aide grazing and stock management. Located in one paddock is a timber lambing shed. At the far end of the land are two small natural ponds.

Lois Farm extends in total to 10.62 hectares (26.25 acres).

LOCATION

Lois Farm is set in a tranquil position in the heart of the outstanding Blackmore Vale countryside on the Somerset Dorset border and enjoys splendid views across the surrounding farmland and beyond.
