PROPERTY SUMMARY

A beautifully presented and rarely available home set within the sought-after Sutton Garden Suburb conservation area. This characterful property offers generous, versatile living space and sits on one of the area's most desirable roads, close to excellent schools, transport links, local amenities and green spaces.

The ground floor features a bright front lounge with bay window, a separate dining room and a kitchen leading out to a superb covered deck — perfect for year-round entertaining. The house has also been freshly re-painted, with new flooring downstairs and new carpets upstairs.

Upstairs offers a spacious master bedroom, a large double and a third single bedroom.

Outside, the mature rear garden provides excellent privacy, complemented by a charming front garden and a garage to the rear of the plot.

A unique home in a prestigious setting, combining period charm with modern comfort.
