37 Caellepa is a stylish, modern four-bedroom home conveniently located on a side street joining onto Bangor's main high street. Each bedroom has its own unique character, ranging from a loft room with Velux windows providing a view across the city's landscape, to a lower bedroom with a large bay window that floods the room with natural light. All rooms are furnished with beautiful matching modern styled fixtures and fittings, with the bathroom particularly bright and well lit. The bathroom also provides options, including a bath and overhead shower. Boasting a breakfast bar and a sleek design, the kitchen has everything a modern home needs including a large fridge freezer, washing machine, tumble dryer, oven and sink.

The property is undergoing some improvements for 2027, including:

- Fresh paint throughout.
- Installation of a wall-mounted TV.
- New leather sofa.
- New decorative wall paneling in the kitchen and bathroom.

As this property is located adjacent to the main high street it is within close walking distance to many University buildings, shops, restaurants, pubs and entertainment venues.
