Narcissus Road, NW6

A charming four bedroom Victorian terraced house located on one of West Hampstead's famous Greek roads. Offering spacious accommodation, period features and a private rear garden.

The ground floor comprises two generous reception rooms with high ceilings, including a front reception room with bay window and feature fireplace. To the rear, a spacious kitchen/dining room features bi-fold doors opening onto the private garden. A useful cellar and guest WC complete the lower ground floor.

There are three bedrooms and a family bathroom on the first floor. The principal bedroom benefits from a bay window, built in wardrobes and an en-suite while a further bedroom also features built in storage. A fourth double bedroom occupies the top floor. An ideal family home combining Victorian character with modern living.

Offering a vibrant neighbourhood atmosphere with an excellent selection of cafés, restaurants, boutique shops and local amenities. The property benefits from superb transport links via West Hampstead Thameslink, Overground and Jubilee Line stations, providing convenient access to Central London and beyond.
