NO CHAIN

Stylish, light-filled two-bedroom apartment near Purfleet station, featuring spacious living, modern finishes, parking, long lease, and superb London and road links—perfect for commuters seeking comfort and convenience.

Welcome to Bridgland Road, where convenience meets charisma and your future self is already thanking you for making such a smart move.

Positioned in the ever-connected hub of Purfleet-on-Thames, this second-floor, two-bedroom apartment is the kind of property that makes you casually drop “oh, it’s just perfect for commuting” into conversation—because it genuinely is. Sitting approximately 0.6 miles from Purfleet railway station, you’ll glide straight into London Fenchurch Street without the usual travel drama.

Step inside and the vibe is immediately “this is even nicer than the photos look”—in the best possible way. The lounge/diner is the headline act: a bright, expansive space framed by multiple floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the room with natural light like it’s on a mission. There’s even a stylish open bay area, perfect for a home office, reading nook, or a spot to sip coffee while pretending you’re in a lifestyle magazine.

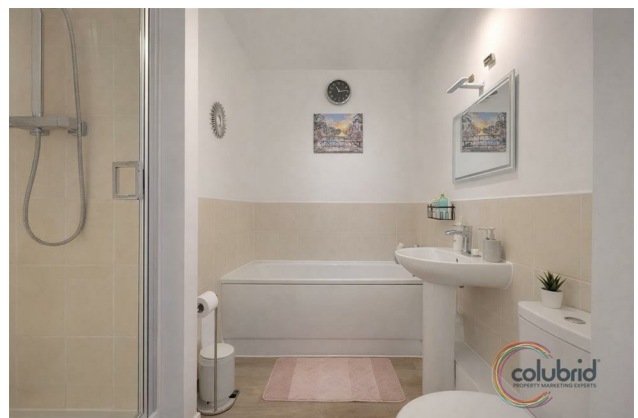

The modern kitchen keeps things sleek and functional—ideal for everything from quick midweek meals to ambitious “I saw this on TikTok” cooking experiments. Meanwhile, the four-piece bathroom suite adds a touch of everyday luxury, because life’s too short for mediocre bathrooms.

Both bedrooms are genuine doubles (no creative measuring here), offering comfortable, versatile spaces whether you’re sleeping, working, or perfecting your streaming setup.

Outside, the perks keep coming. You’ve got an allocated parking space—your very own VIP spot—plus plenty of visitor parking for when friends inevitably invite themselves over after seeing your new place.

And let’s talk longevity: with a lease comfortably exceeding 100 years, this is a home that’s as sensible as it is stylish. Add in effortless access to the A13, M25, and Lakeside Shopping Centre, and you’ve got connectivity that works as hard as you do.

This is modern living with a social-media-ready edge—light-filled, well-located, and quietly impressive.
