Situated on Osborne Road in the heart of Warsash, this attractive semi-detached cottage combines period charm with practical, modern living – making it a fantastic family home.

Inside, there are three generous reception rooms, offering plenty of flexibility for everyday living as well as entertaining. The layout flows well, creating a comfortable and sociable feel throughout. To the rear, a substantial extension has transformed the space, bringing in lots of natural light and providing a spacious hub of the home.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, along with three bathrooms – ideal for busy family life or visiting guests.

We're pleased to have secured a buyer prior to marketing, reflecting the strong demand we're seeing for character homes in Warsash. If you're thinking of selling, or would like early access to similar properties, get in touch with Addison Estate Agents to register your details.
