DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the popular village of Sampford Peverell, this delightful semi-detached house offers a perfect blend of character and potential for modern living. Built in approximately 1830, the property is conveniently located within walking distance of local amenities, schooling, with transport links such as Tiverton Parkway Train Station and M5 Junction 27 within 1.1 and 1.7 miles away, respectively.

On the ground floor, the property offers two generous reception rooms. The dining room is set to the front of the property just off the large kitchen with built in pantry and separate utility with downstairs WC. There are also double doors into the garden from the sitting room and side access from the kitchen. Upstairs, the property provides four well-sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. The main bedroom offers a glorious double aspect with stunning views across the village and over the surrounding countryside. Externally, the property has a patio garden overlooking the canal and benefitting from the evening sun, given its west facing orientation, making it perfect for alfresco dining whilst also providing scope for potted plants and shrubbery around the borders. Bridge House offers a fantastic opportunity to modernise a historic home in the heart of Sampford Peverell in an elevated position alongside the canal.
