A nicely presented three-bedroom home, offering versatile living spaces and a sunny, low-maintenance garden, ideally located within easy reach of the town centre. Extended to the front, the hallway is large and bright and there is further planning consent to extend to the side and rear.

The inviting entrance porch, complete with a convenient downstairs cloakroom, leads directly into a cosy sitting room. This comfortable space features an electric wood-burning stove with a decorative mantle, creating a welcoming focal point. Continuing through, you'll discover a spacious open-plan kitchen and dining room. The modern kitchen is well-equipped with a central island and a full range of integrated appliances, providing an ideal setting for both everyday family life and entertaining. Double doors seamlessly connect this area to the rear garden, perfect for indoor-outdoor living.

Upstairs, the home offers three well-proportioned bedrooms: two comfortable doubles and a third single room. The principal bedroom benefits from generous built-in storage, and all bedrooms are served by a modern family shower room.

Externally, the private rear garden enjoys a sunny southern aspect and has been thoughtfully designed for low maintenance, featuring raised planting beds and a charming covered arbour at the far end – an excellent space for relaxation or al fresco dining. Adding considerable versatility to the property, the single garage has been cleverly converted into a studio, providing an ideal home office or creative workspace.

The property benefits from further planning consent to extend to the rear and the side. As part of the work has already been completed, this planning consent will not expire.

Alresford is a beautiful Georgian town known for its variety of independent shops, restaurants and inns located in stunning surroundings on the edge of the South Downs National Park. Attractions include the Watercress steam railway, schools for infant, junior and secondary education, several churches and an active and inclusive community. The cathedral city of Winchester is about 7 miles away and there is easy access to the south coast, the midlands and London via the road network. There is also mainline rail access to London from both Winchester and Alton. Southampton airport is only about half an hour away by car.
