

Seighford Lane

Stafford, ST18 9LQ

An excellent opportunity to acquire an attractive traditional semi-detached house which occupies a lovely plot within this delightful semi-rural location.

£275,000

John German

Step inside the reception hall with stairs rising to the first floor. The delightful and well proportioned lounge has a front facing bay window and a cast log burner.

The excellent dining kitchen is fitted with an attractive range of cream-coloured units with contrasting wood effect work surfaces and a 1 ½ bowl sink and drainer complemented by tiled splash backs. Double French style doors open to the terrace from the dining area.

A guest's cloakroom has a WC and an integrated wash basin.

On the first floor there are two bedrooms, the larger of the two rooms has a built-in cupboard and a front facing window which enjoys views beyond the road. Both are served by a well appointed bathroom comprising bath with screen and electric shower, wash basin, WC and an airing cupboard.

Outside

The house stands well back from the road beyond a lawned garden with mature hedges and a drive for two vehicles. Double gates open to a very useful side area with log store. At the rear is a paved terrace with step to a slightly raised lawn plus a very useful store.

Whilst the location is semi-rural, it is approximately a 10 minute drive to the county town centre and Intercity Railway Station.
