

Whitehill Lane, Tolpuddle
OIEO £425,000

This fabulous semi-detached family home is set within a quiet, private road within Tolpuddle. The property is beautifully presented offering style, character and charm with accommodation including a lounge, snug, kitchen, conservatory, ground floor bathroom, three bedrooms, and Jack 'n' Jill bathroom. Externally, there is beautifully tended, fully enclosed garden to the rear and garage with separate storage. EPC rating TBC.

Nestled along the banks of the River Piddle, Tolpuddle is a quintessential Dorset village that perfectly balances rural charm with world-renowned history. The village is home to the iconic Martyrs' Tree and the dedicated Tolpuddle Martyrs Museum, drawing visitors every July for its vibrant heritage festival. Beyond its historical significance, Tolpuddle offers a peaceful lifestyle defined by thatched cottages and scenic walking trails, including the Jubilee Way and Hardy Way, which wind through the surrounding National Landscape. Local life centers around the community-focused Martyrs Inn and a recently modernised village hall, while daily essentials are conveniently met in the neighboring village of Puddletown, just two miles away, which provides a doctor's surgery, a well-stocked local shop, and a post office. For broader amenities, the historic county town of Dorchester is only an eight-mile drive via the A35, offering high-street shopping, the well regarded The Thomas Hardy School, and direct rail links to London Waterloo and Bristol Temple Meads. With the stunning Jurassic Coast and attractions like Athelhampton House within easy reach, Tolpuddle represents a rare opportunity to reside in a picturesque community that is as well-connected as it is historic.

Entrance to this lovely family home is via a UPVC door with an opening leading to a versatile, dual aspect, study/boot room and a door to a useful ground floor WC. The wonderful kitchen/diner is the heart of the home and offers the perfect blend of contemporary and character features including exposed beams and exposed brick original Inglenook fireplace. The room is fitted with a comprehensive range of shaker style wall and base units with integrated fridge/freezer and space for a number of further white goods. The room is also home to the 10-year-old oil fired boiler, serviced annually. The kitchen is finished with tiled flooring and part tiled walls. A door leads through to the hallway with understairs storage, stairs to the first floor and stylish and modern ground floor bathroom with white suite, a fitted vanity unit beneath the wash hand basin with additional worksurface and fully tiled walls. An opening from the hallway leads through the lounge where the character continues with hard wood floor, exposed beams and open fire open fireplace currently fitted with an electric log burner (NOT INCLUDED). French doors open onto the conservatory offering further ground floor living space and overlooking the garden.

The style and character continues to the first-floor accommodation which boasts three bedrooms, double in size. Two bedrooms offer built in storage and there is a Jack 'n' Jill shower room, also with hardwood flooring, servicing the front aspect and side aspect room. The rear aspect bedroom is flooded with natural light via a triple aspect.

The beautifully maintained garden is generous in size offering a good sense of space and privacy. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with an area of patio abutting the property and also at the rear to take advantage of the sunniest spots! The garden offers a plethora of mature plants. There is a summer house and garage with additional storage space.
