GENERAL DESCRIPTION

A detached, purpose built former industrial building of steel portal frame construction with pitched profile clad roof. In recent years the building has undergone a major refurbishment to create a unique and multipurpose property that would suit a range of different businesses. On the ground floor the unit comprises five large rooms which could be used for manufacturing, storage or showroom space, plus additional stores, offices and bathrooms. On the first floor is an attractive, bright and open office space with smaller offices and kitchen with breakout dining area and toilets. The property benefits from a solid concrete first floor, power coated aluminium double-glazed windows with electrically operated external security shutters, gas heating and carpeted flooring in the office areas. Externally is marked parking for 12 vehicles behind a secure steel gate.

LOCATION

Cross Hill forms part of the one way system that leads from Waterloo Road to Newcastle Street and the A500. The property is located on the edge of Burslem town centre and around 1 mile from the Porthill roundabout junction of the A500.
