

Alto, Sillavan Way, Salford

£950 PCM

Picture a Manchester bee upgrading its nest. Still close to the buzz, still stylish, but now with more space and better lighting. Welcome to Alto.

This large one bedroom rental sits right by the River Irwell, perfectly placed on the edge of the city centre. Close enough that Spinningfields, Deansgate and the heart of Manchester are all an easy stroll, but tucked away enough to feel like a calm little hideout when the day is done. It is no surprise this development is always popular.

Inside, the apartment is bright, modern and genuinely spacious. The open plan kitchen and lounge is made for real life, whether that means friends over, a quiet night in, or a Sunday that starts with coffee and accidentally turns into a nap. The finish is sleek and contemporary, with high quality fixtures throughout including Villeroy and Boch sanitary ware, giving it that hotel feel without the checkout time.

The bedroom is generously sized and the layout just makes sense. There is a large main bathroom and an ensuite too, so no morning queues, no negotiations, no passive aggressive towel placement. Everyone wins.

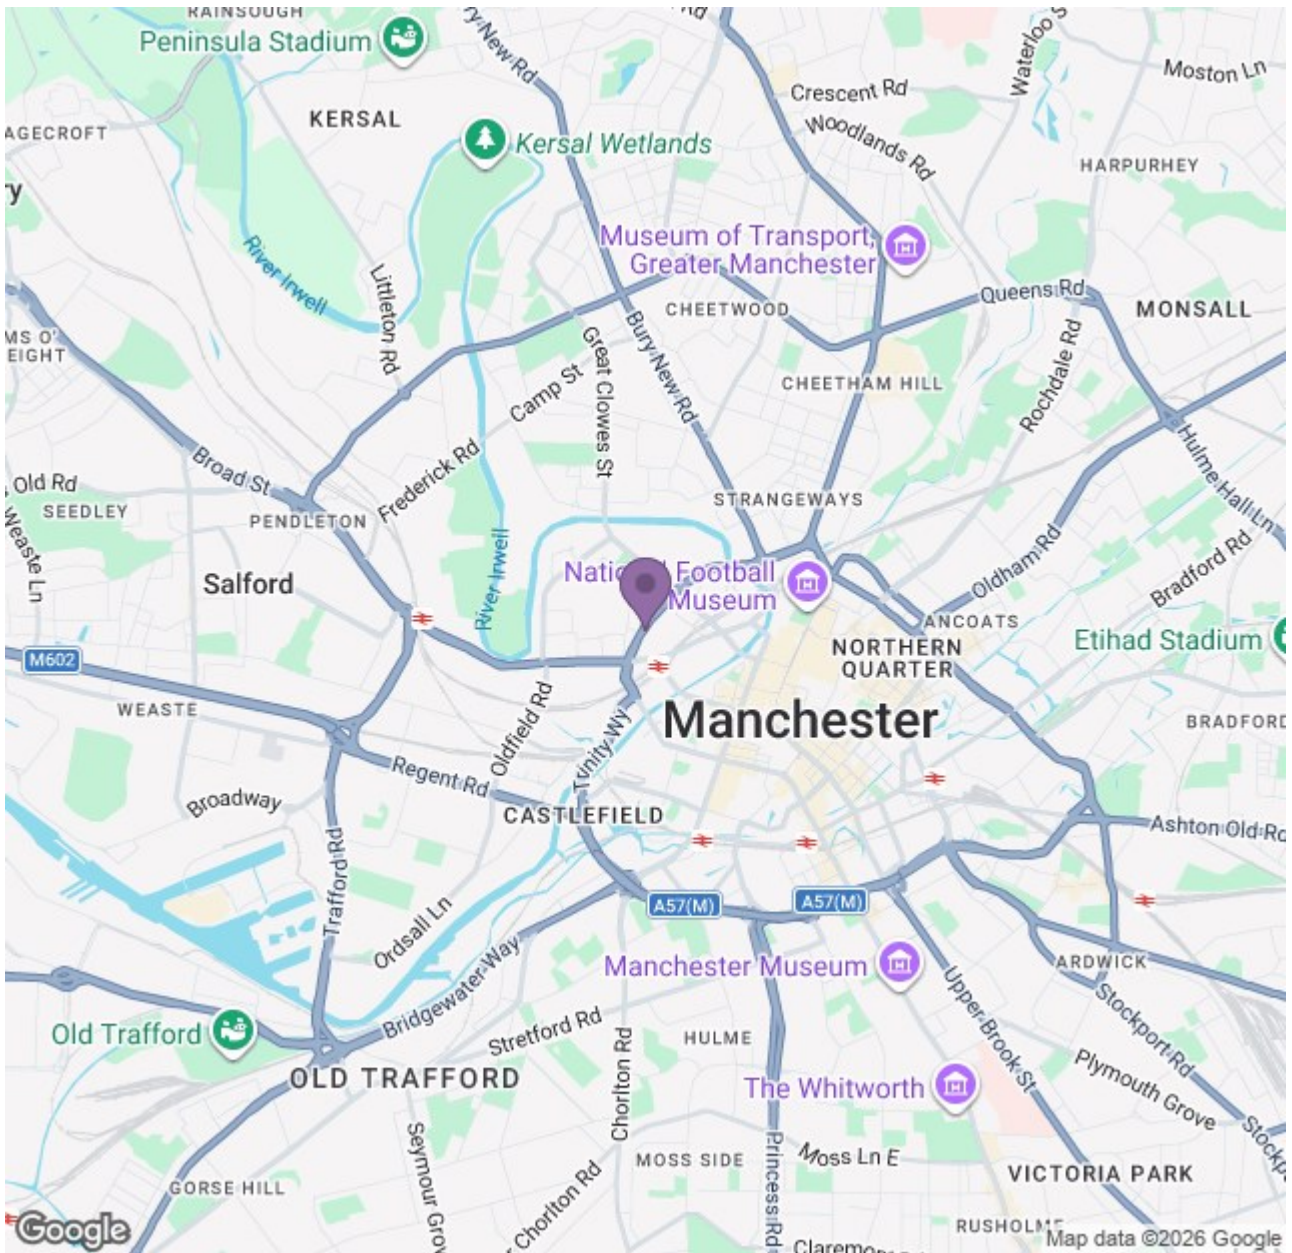

This is one of those rentals that feels like a smart move. Great location, loads of space, extremely well priced and in a building people actively want to live in. The Manchester bee would absolutely approve.

If you want to take a look or ask a few questions, get in touch. Just so you know, the photos are for marketing purposes and internal finishes may vary, but the location, space and vibe are spot on.
