A spacious two-bedroom family home, built in the 1950s, offering excellent potential to extend (subject to planning permission). Located on a popular residential road, the property has been sympathetically updated by the current owner and is presented in very good decorative order throughout.

The accommodation includes a re-fitted kitchen and bathroom, a cosy living area with log burner, patio doors opening onto the garden, and gas central heating. Additional benefits include an entrance porch, ample off-road parking, and a private south-facing rear garden ideal for entertaining or family use.

This traditionally built home occupies an end-of-terrace position and enjoys a particularly private feel due to its staggered layout in relation to neighbouring properties.

Ready to move straight into while still offering scope to add your own personal touches, this property also benefits from the vendor having found their onward purchase. Internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate both the quality and potential on offer.
