Summary

WITH PRIVATE DRIVEWAY - An exceptional opportunity to own a piece of Derby's Victorian history. Beautifully preserved grade II listed end terrace built circa 1850. Located within the revitalised Five Lamps conservation area, a short walk from Derby city centre. This spacious and elegant home offers versatility, original charm, and a potential income stream from the separate, externally accessed lower ground floor apartment which has been previously used as a residence and commercial unit (subject to permissions)

THE MAIN HOUSE: Fabulous entrance hall with beautiful staircase to first floor, two large reception rooms with original period detailing, refitted kitchen, utility and guest cloakroom. Feature first floor landing leading to three bedrooms and large bathroom. The second floor comprises two further good sized rooms.

OUTSIDE: Private low maintenance garden, outbuilding and off road parking space with PRIVATE DRIVE.

LOWER GROUND FLOOR APARTMENT: Self contained, ideal for additional income by way of commercial let, air b and b, or buy to let accommodation. Comprises lounge, kitchen, bedroom and shower room. Alternatively multi generational living/accommodation for dependent relative.
