Situation

Meifod is a picturesque village nestled in the heart of the Vyrnwy Valley, surrounded by rolling countryside and known for its genuine sense of community

With its charming mix of traditional homes, a well regarded primary school, local pub, church and village hall, Meifod offers a warm, welcoming atmosphere where neighbours know one another and village life thrives. Its peaceful rural setting, scenic walking routes and strong community spirit make it an appealing choice for those seeking a tranquil lifestyle without feeling isolated.

Accommodation

The property is approached via the lower ground floor, where there is generous parking and access to an impressive L shaped garage and workshop, complete with two double-opening doors. This versatile space is often referred to as a 'man cave' and is ideal for hobbyists, home mechanics, or those seeking substantial storage.

On entering the lower level, a utility room provides access to a cloakroom with WC and shower; a highly practical arrangement for dog owners wanting to clean muddy paws before entering the main living areas.

This floor also includes a sitting room/bedroom and a further bedroom currently used as a study, which enjoys views over, and direct access to, the side lawned garden. With this layout, there is clear potential to create a self contained annexe for multi generational living or guest accommodation.

The garage/workshop offers exceptional flexibility, with an additional storage area that could be incorporated into the workshop space or adapted to form a kitchen/dining area for an independent living suite in the adjoining living accommodation.

A further secure storage room behind the workshop provides ample space for garden equipment and benefits from its own covered and secure external access.

The property is designed in an upside down style, with the principal living areas located on the upper floor to maximise natural light and the outstanding views.

The kitchen, two main bedrooms, and the spacious lounge all enjoy far reaching outlooks across the village and surrounding countryside.

A standout feature is the full length conservatory, accessed from both the kitchen and the lounge. This superb space serves as the heart of the home throughout the year, with one end arranged as a dining area and the other as a cosy snug. It offers the feeling of being immersed in the garden while enjoying warmth and comfort; perfect for watching birds on the lawn or simply taking in the panoramic scenery.

This property also features full fibre to the premises, providing unlimited high-speed data connectivity, which is crucial for any potential buyer with a work-from-home requirement.

Externally

Stepping out from the conservatory onto the lawned and paved terrace, there is a sense of grandeur reminiscent of a country house.

The terrace is ideal for outdoor dining, entertaining, or simply relaxing while enjoying the elevated views over Meifod and the rolling green landscape.

The lawn offers space for leisure activities and gatherings and there is a natural, shrub planted wildlife bank rising up the hillside beside the property, creating a peaceful, biodiverse backdrop.
