This is a rare opportunity to secure a substantial, recently refurbished office building in a prime town centre position recently announced as the 1st TECH TOWN of the UK. Spanning two floors with an expansive street frontage, the property benefits from significant passing traffic and a high volume of pedestrian footfall. The accommodation is designed for versatility, making it ideal for a variety of commercial uses. With excellent local amenities and major transport hubs just a short walk away, these offices offer the perfect balance of convenience and professional prestige.
