Schedule of restrictive covenants

1 The following are details of the covenants contained in the Conveyance dated 19 March 1879 referred to in the Charges Register:- NOW therefore the Vendors (as to so much of the land to which the said stipulations relate as remains vested in them) for themselves and their assigns and the Purchaser (as to the Land hereby conveyed) for himself his heirs executors administrators and assigns do respectively covenant and grant with and to each other and as to the purchaser also with and to the owners or owner of any other Land to which the benefit of the said stipulations is attached and their his or her respective heirs and assigns that the covenantors respectively and their respective heirs and assigns will henceforth observe perform and comply with the said stipulations so far as the same relate either to the rights or to the duties of the Purchaser his heirs or assigns in respect of the land hereby conveyed and that nothing shall ever be erected fixed placed or done upon the land as to which they respectively covenant in breach or violation or contrary to the fair meaning of the said stipulations but this covenant is not to be personally binding upon either the Vendors or the Purchasers or any other person except in respect of breaches committed or continued during their his or her joint or sole seizin of or title to the land upon or in respect of which such breaches shall have been committed.

SECOND SCHEDULE

Stipulations relating to Lots 1 to 212 inclusive

1. Fences. Each Purchaser is forthwith to make and afterwards to maintain the boundary fences next the Roads and on the sides of his lot marked T within the boundary
2. Value of Buildings. No house or public building is to be erected of less value than £600 on lots 1 to 212 or of less value than £250 on any other lot. The value of a Building is the amount of its net first cost in materials and labour of construction only estimated at the lowest current prices.
3. Trades &c Prohibited. No public house beer house or house for the sale of beer wine or spirituous liquors shall be erected nor shall the trade of an Innkeeper Victualler or Retailer of wine spirits or beer be carried on upon any lot. No hut shed caravan house on wheels or other chattel adapted or intended for use as a dwelling or sleeping apartment shall be erected made placed or used or be allowed to remain upon any lot and the Vendors or the owner or owners of any part of the said lots 1 to 212 may remove and dispose of any such erection or other thing and for that purpose may break fences and forcibly enter any land upon which a breach of this stipulation shall occur and shall not be responsible for the safe keeping of anything so removed or for the loss thereof or any damage thereto.

4. Roads. Except when otherwise expressed all the ways are public highways and each lot includes the soil of half the way to the extent of its abuttal thereon nevertheless (as between themselves and the purchasers) the Vendors reserve the right to form and make any of the roads at such levels with such gradients and in such manner as they may approve and for that purpose to make cuttings or embankments upon any lots and deposit or remove and dispose of any surplus earth or to make sewers or drains in any highway or to repair any such works. No purchaser shall remove or disturb the soil or surface of any way except for the purpose of repairing the same or laying gas water or drainpipes from his lots to the mains in any of which cases the Road shall be made good and the repair consolidated by the Purchaser to the satisfaction of the Vendors.
