ABOUT THE PROPERTY

In the heart of South Kensington, close to the Royal Albert Hall, Hyde Park and the Victoria & Albert Museum sits close to Queen's Gate Place. An elegant residential address with Victorian period properties, grand in proportions and with plenty of kerb appeal. This grade II listed, three bedroom apartment has been completely refurbished throughout, retaining its traditional period features yet benefitting from the luxuries and comforts of a modern contemporary home.

The extravagant reception room has four metre high ceilings with restored cornicing. The kitchen is state of the art and there is a bespoke wine room that maintains the optimum temperature and humidity for a collection.
